

AUTUMN 1 WRITING OPPORTUNITIES

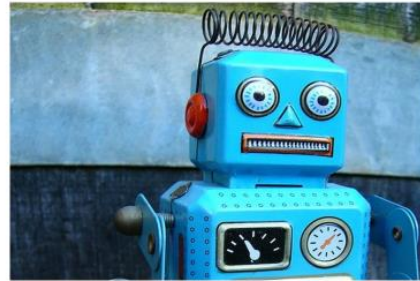

Over this half term, we have provided a weekly opportunity for writing. If you want to, you can bring each week's learning back into school. Try your best. Say what you want to write and then, carefully record all of the sounds and words.

Lets try drawing a picture and writing a simple sentence about your favourite cartoon character. What's their name and what do you like about them?

fppt.com

Imagine what it would be like to have a robot friend. Try drawing a picture and writing their name. Have a go at writing labels for each of their features.

fppt.com

Can you help the adults at home to write a shopping list? Don't forget when writing a list each item/word goes on its own line.

fppt.com

Let's find out some facts about giraffes. Information can be found using resources such as searching the internet with an adult or looking in non-fiction (information) books. Have a go at writing three of your favourite facts.

fppt.com

Write a short recount about what's happening in the picture. Use three short sentences and try to include three time order words. These might include: First, next, and last.

fppt.com