(formerly Parent Partnership Service)

We provide advice, information and support on all matters relating to special educational needs and disabilities (SEND)

We can help you if:

You are a parent or carer of a child or young person with SEN or a disability or

You are a young person up to the age of 25 with SEN or a disability

Our service is free, impartial and confidential

We aim to

- Work in partnership with parents, children and young people in order to achieve positive outcomes
- Provide information to help parents, children and young people to be fully involved and make informed decisions about the outcomes they wish to achieve
- Ensure the views, wishes and feelings of parents, children and young people are heard and valued by all professionals
- Develop positive relationships between parents, children, young people and all agencies involved, including schools, colleges, the local authority and voluntary organisations

We will often work with parents and their children together, but we can also provide a direct and separate service to children and young people.

We can offer confidential, impartial advice to young people (16+) if requested.

How can we help?
